From the day they met, Larry loved Sheila with all of his heart and cherished every moment of their 48 years together. “ Susie and me (Craig) were church members and friends with Larry and Sheila Ozment. We lived next to them at an apartment complex and were serving as Youth Pastors where their son Matt and Malinda were a part. Larry was a steady person. Consistent and always engaging in fun conversation. He loved to find humor in situations and was not reluctant to burst out with an explosive belly laugh that was infectious to all. We remember both Larry and Sheila being deeply caring people and devoted friends. Larry was a very unassuming person and quiet when things called for that, but he was ready to step in when things got crazy and fun. I am very sorry that we did not live in closer proximity to Larry and Shelia for the last 25 plus years as we moved away to Massachusetts around 1991 to assume a music director role in a church there. At times like these when someone like Larry passes on, one is flooded with emotions. I feel sad I did not have occasion to live more of life with Larry, Sheila and the kids. Susie and I could not be any more blessed by the presence of Larry and all of the family in our lives. We submitted a song I composed for another dear friend who passed away rather suddenly several years ago. It is an anthem that celebrates the life of a person who lived well and also expresses that they will be missed and it is OK to grieve. We have uploaded the song here online and hope it can be a blessing to all. With love, Craig and Susie Perkins
