“ My prayers for all of you. What a tragic loss. I appreciated Laurie so much! She was the first friendly, kind, caring Christian sister I met when I moved to Tulsa. She was the leader of my bible study group and such a prayer warrior! We can be sure she was welcomed with open arms by our Lord and Savior. ❤️🙏❤️ Sandy Fraser

“ Dearest Tim:

My heartfelt sympathies go out to you and yours during this most trying of times. Laurie was a "ray of sunshine" to whomever she met. Always made me feel "right at home" during the NACAT conferences. Tim, if I can help in any fashion, feel free to reach out. In my prayers.

“ I will always remember Laurie from our NACAT group when we explored New York together in July 2018! She was always so kind and caring and looked out for me. I can't believe she is gone! We had so much fun together!!!

“ A very treasured NACAT friend! I will miss Laurie's bubbly personality, easy smile, and infectious laugh. Her joy of life drew others to her, and she accepted each with open arms. When she spoke of her family, it was with love and excitement, and when she spoke of herself, it was with self-deprecating humour: "...but I could be wrong, I'm wrong a lot!" She genuinely looked out for the welfare of others and liked nothing better than gather together and get the fun started. Our thoughts and prayers are with Tim and family...truly a loved and loving lady!

“ Dear Tim and Family,

We are so very sorry for your loss, and absolutely crushed by this news. And while I believe that we only had the pleasure of meeting her once, by all accounts she was a very, very special person, a loving wife, a wonderful mother, and a great friend to all who knew her.

Please know that we are praying for you and your family.

We hope that God will give you the peace that surpasses all understanding, resting in the knowledge that Laurie is 'whole' once again! New body! New mind! And a renewed Soul in Christ Jesus, Amen! We believe she's perfectly happy, and celebrating her new home with family members who preceded her, into His presence. We know that she's waiting to embrace you again someday, on the streets of eternal gold. REV 21:21

*Your friends always,
Mark & Lisa Jones*

“ Our deepest condolences to Tim, Adam and Jean, Amy and Anthony and family, my dear friend Donna Scrudder and Debbie and Harold and family. Terry and I love you guys like our family and our hearts hurt for you! We have so many good memories of Laurie and still remember the first few days after Adam was born and how strong her faith was! Also remember her bringing Adam’s nurses chocolate chip cookies when she was going through one of her biggest struggles in life! That was Laurie, always thinking of others! I know she is enjoying the best music ever now and is dancing with the angels! I still remember her dancing with her daddy Larry Scrudder! So many good memories and I hope these comfort the family in the days ahead! Love you! Dee and Terry Herron

“ Laurie, I will miss you so much my dear friend. So many memories-meeting when our girls were 3 and 4 in Ballet class, My son going to Mingo Valley with Adam and Amy, many, many Bunko games-oh your enthusiasm! Concerts, Plays, hot tub and pool and massage talks were all such good memories to hold on to. God knew we would need one really nice long weekend with you this summer at the lake, I will cherish that gift from God. Your prayers were so eloquent and you knew just how to pray for my Tim when he had cancer. I loved you so much my friend, we will see each other again in Heaven. Hope you are teaching the angels how to play Bunko 🤔 Tim, Amy, Adam, Donna and Debbie, you all are in my prayers for a peace that passes all understanding

“ My deepest sympathy to Tim, Adam, Amy and family. Much love and prayers to you all in the loss of your precious wife, mother, grandmother and amazing spiritual mentor to many! Grace adorned Laurie and she was such a delight! I can still hear her laugh and saying 'well, God's in control, friend'. I was so impacted by her love for Christ and how specifically she prayed for everyone in our study group. Laurie knew how to enjoy life & love others; loved the parties she hosted at her home. Heaven is richer with Laurie rejoicing with the angels. Sincerely, Betty Berg

We met Laurie & Tim when we moved to BA from Texas in 1995. She was a wonderful neighbor, friend, and sister-in-Christ! Though we moved again two years later, we continued to stay in contact as our children grew up and we became grandparents. She was truly devoted to her family and her faith! God bless and comfort Tim, Adam, and Amy. She left wonderful memories and a lasting legacy! Rhonda & Gary White (Dustyn, Colby, Paige, & Ashlyn)
