“ Hello, I just now looked to find the obit of Lenora DeBusk who resided here in The Village Health Care Center during the 4 years that I have lived here. I liked her very much. She was the sweetest thing and had the prettiest smile. She didn't say much, but you could feel her expression of love towards you and the others, except sometimes she had a slight frown on her face. I have thought of her often since she passed, but didn't pursue trying to find her obituary notice until now. Just know that the people here at The Village really liked her. I know that you must have loved her very much. I will not forget her. My sincere thoughts and prayers are on your families. Sincerely, Eddene Hightower Thompson, long-time resident of Broken Arrow town.
