

Lillian "Kaye" Holeman

October 28, 1942 - January 10, 2024

Lillian Kaye Holeman was born Wednesday, October 28, 1942 in Shawnee, Oklahoma to parents, Archibald and Catherine (Lowe) Flood. She left this earth from her home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, with her husband beside her, on Wednesday, January 10, 2024. She was 81 years young.

Lillian Kaye was lovingly referred to as "Kaye." She grew up in Cushing, Oklahoma. Her favorite subject all through school was history. Kaye played the French Horn in the Cushing

High School Band where she graduated in 1960. She then went to Central Oklahoma University where she studied Accounting. Kaye and Doyle met and later married in Cushing, Oklahoma.

They wed on the 18th of May in 1966.

Kaye was the mother of two boys and was afforded the opportunity to stay at home with them during their youth. Later on, she helped found a charitable clothing closet named "Arms Around Broken Arrow" and managed the closet for quite some time. After her boys had grown and married, she started a career as a loan officer at Frontier Federal Bank. Kaye was extremely involved in her church, Aspen Park Baptist. She was responsible for scheduling and planning many events for the seniors of the congregation. Kaye was also a voting supervisor for a precinct in Wagoner County. In addition to being an active part of the community, she prided herself with her gardening skills and the lovely flowers and vegetables her plants produced. On the days where the weather was not permissible, Kaye also loved to oil paint. She was quite the artist.

“ Doyle, So, so sorry to just learn of Kaye's passing. She was such a good friend to Joyce and me! We can both rejoice in knowing Kaye is now in Glory with Jesus! Joyce and I still remember our time together in Cushing, OK with such fond memories of Kaye. May God be with you and the family during this time of loss.

In His Love,
Ron 🙏
