“ *A flood of memories hit me when I read of Lois' passing. I have always marveled at the unique bond between my parents, Harold and Lois, Bill and Polly, and Myron and Ardith. They were friends in high school and stayed that way throughout life. When we were growing up, we would load up in the car and go to Laurel. Our parents play cards and us kids played all sorts of games inside and out. Harold and Lois traveled back for both my parent's memorial services. That meant so much to our family. I wish the distance was not so great. Please know that you are in our prayers during this difficult time.
