

Lou Ella Bunch

December 26, 1941 - November 11, 2023

Lou Ella (Stubbs) Bunch was born on December 26, 1941 in Henryetta, Oklahoma, the daughter to Woodrow “W.R.” and Hazel Stubbs. She was one of two children. Her sibling was a brother, Richard “Dickie” Stubbs.

Lou Ella grew up in Henryetta and graduated from Henryetta High School in 1959. She continued her education at Oklahoma State University for the next two years. She met the love of her life, Charles Bunch, while they were both working at Sunoco. They married on November 13, 1963 in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

She and Charles moved to Broken Arrow where she worked for Broken Arrow Public Schools as an Administrative Assistant.

As ‘mom’ to all who crossed her path. The most notable was her going on every band trip for her daughter Tami and being at every livestock show for her son Jimmy when they were in high school.

After her children grew up and were off on their own she enjoyed many trips around the United States with friends and family alike.

Lou Ella attended First Nazarene Church in Broken Arrow for many, many years. She participated in ongoing church activities and lunches. She also enjoyed monthly dinners with Charles’ high school classmates. Lou Ella loved playing card games, doing word searches and listening to her gospel music.

She will be missed by all who crossed paths with her.

She is survived by: Husband Charles Bunch of Broken Arrow, OK. Daughter Tami Bunch of Spavinaw, OK. Son Jimmy (wife Kimberly) of Spavinaw, OK. Grandchildren Timothy (wife Katie) of Broken Arrow, Kaylah and Jhenna of Spavinaw and great-granddaughter Addison of Broken Arrow. A niece and nephew and several grand nephews and grand nieces.

“ Our parents were amazing friends, and we became friends bringing them together. The last time I saw Lou was for lunch in Tulsa with her mom and mine. What a wonderful heritage we shared. Fortunately, we all share our love and commitment to God Almighty through Jesus, so I look forward to an amazing reunion in heaven. These photos were from Dec 17, 2011

I'm so sorry for your loss. My God be your comfort.

“Lou Ella Bunch was one of the closest and dearest friends I ever had. She had a laugh that was constant, and a smile for everyone.

Lou & her husband, Charlie, traveled with us to several locations. You really get to know people well when you are together on a daily basis for several days. They were always open to our suggestions on about anything. There are certain foods that Charlie just would not try, but Lou never rocked the boat, she was just cheerful about everything.

My dear Lou was called to her eternal home just two days before her and Charlie's 60th wedding anniversary. It seems like their 50th was just a very few years ago. I was honored to take photos at their big event. She has been reunited with her precious parents, loving brother, and many close cousins and other family members that she adored and missed.

My buddy Lou and I had so many laughs together about rather stupid, fun things we did. I think my funniest memory is when we went shopping for an Easter dress in Penneys. I don't recall for certain, but I believe it was rather close to Easter Sunday, so there were a lot of women trying on clothes. We grabbed a larger dressing room which we could both use. Well there are always a lot of giggles (now tears) when women try on clothes together. Finally we both decided on a dress. Lou suggested we should call the guys and have them meet us somewhere for lunch. While she was calling Charlie, I was looking for my phone, when it rang. I answered with my usual "Hello", and the caller responded, "Hello." I turned around, and sure enough, Lou had called me instead. If you didn't laugh at this, it's one of those things that another friend of mind, is always saying, "I guess you had to be there!"

I can just see Lou strolling through Heaven with her loved ones, with the biggest smile on her face! Oh what a time she is having. There are many family and friends that will miss Lou, until it's our turn to meet Jesus, and stand in awe at the Lord God Almighty. Lou will be close by, ready to take us on a personal tour of Heaven!

Charlie, Tami, Jim, Kim, Grandkids and Great Granddaughter, you will be in our many thoughts and prayers. We know she she will be greatly missed by many
