“ My wife and I are members at Garnett Road Baptist Church- we loved our Roadsters get togethers- played dominoes at same table every thursday- loved that time with him-always! Louis always listened to this old Missouri boy ramble on about our Cards(St Louis- that is)- we enjoyed many wonderful tines with him.

“ Louis and Earline both served in the church by counting tithes and offerings once a month. I remember them very fondly, they were always so happy and wanting to serve the Lord. They were devoted to each other and to their Savior. Heaven gained another wonderful soul!
