

Lucila "Lucy" Noriega

October 23, 1937 - December 14, 2018

Lucila Clotilde Noriega was born in Mexico City, Mexico on Saturday, October 23, 1937, the daughter of Jose Luis and Lucila (Melendez) Varela. She died in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Friday, December 14, 2018. She was 81 years of age.

Lucy devoted her life to working and caring for her family. She was a devoted and loving mother and grandmother who's world revolved around her children and grandchildren. Her most cherished hobby was telling anyone she talked to about her awesome grandkids and sharing their accomplishments with great pride and love. She was a beloved friend who could always be counted on for a word of encouragement and prayer. A fierce Laker fan, especially Kobe Bryant, she never missed a game if she could help it and could be counted on to provide colorful commentary throughout. She loved owls and collected owl figurines from loved ones from around the world.

Lucy is survived by,

Daughters, Gaby Noriega and Russell Morrison, Tulsa, OK

Gina Fonseca and husband Al, Tulsa, OK

Carla Noriega, Bellflower, CA

10 Grandchildren: Alonso Jr., Angela, David, Rachel, Frankie, Robert, Kayla, Jacob, Matthew and Noah.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Jose Luis and Lucila Varela, brothers Luis Alonso and Jose Gabriel and a grandbaby.

“ She was the best person I've ever known. Regardless of what choices I made in life she never turned her back on me she never looked away she was always there no matter what. She's my hero my idol and who I strive to be like. She took care of my kids when I couldn't she was a mom when I couldn't be and I'll never have any words to express how grateful I am for that. this woman was my everything. she gave her life for her grandkids and she will live on through them. rest in paradise mommy until I see you again
