“ This lady was like a 3rd grandmother to me. In fact as a child I thought she actuality was. During a rough period of my life as an adult I lived in Canada for a short time where she was from. She knew I was dealing with addiction issues and one day she said I've known you since you were a baby, and that she loved me and then she just told me I needed to straighten up.

Just like that.

I will miss her, but she is home now.

Oh, I did straighten up. Eventually.

And frankly I never forgot her words.

“Heaven opened its windows for my sweet Granny today. she was ready to meet her Maker and so full of joy to be home.

Listen to the joy in her heart in this priceless video I took the last time we were together. This is why we are not sad but we celebrate what she already knew would await her. There is “joy, joy, joy in our hearts” because Granny made it home after 100 years on this earth.

Thank you God for such a beautiful life and a woman of God that helped us become who we are today.

Wow! Lydia was like this all the time. Her warm smile and sweet essence of Jesus was infectious. She was so encouraging to me and the ministry Jesus has given me in sports. Blessings to the family, Dr. Madeline Manning Mims “ I'll certainly miss momma Wuerch. She was a faithful attender of our Wednesday night prayer meetings. That woman could pray. She told me she had a picture of John, my son, that she prayed over every day. I was thankful for her commitment. Heaven received a remarkable woman this week.
