

Marcella Hollingsworth

October 3, 1925 - December 30, 2021

Marcella May (Barr) Hollingsworth was born Saturday, October 3, 1925 in Putnam, Oklahoma to Ray and Lela (Irvin) Barr. She met her soon to be husband, John Hollingsworth, in 1944 and they married in Redwood City, California on December 6, 1944. Together, they had two daughters, Jan and Marsha. Marcella passed away Thursday, December 30, 2021 at the age of 96.

During Marcella's working years, and before retirement, she was a sales manager for Country Club of Tulsa. She loved the Lord and enjoyed attending her church, Metropolitan Bible Church in Oklahoma City. She was known for sharing the Gospel to anyone who would listen. She was a people person and was highly regarded as a prayer warrior for those she loved. Her outreach even extended to preaching God's word to those at the senior living center. Marcella was always known for her devoted spirit. She will be dearly missed by those that knew her.

She is survived by:

Daughters: Jan Dunham and husband, Dennis of Oklahoma City

“ Hello, this is your cousin Scott Phillips. I just found out Marcella passed away. I'm sorry to hear it, she was a very sweet lady. I was just trying to contact her to let her know that my mom, your cousin Marlene Mohr Phillips, died last night. I don't know whether my mom knew about Marcella's passing or not, but I know the two of them were very fond of one another.
