Marguerite loved the Lord Jesus with all her heart. In the 1960's she would hold a Bible Class for the neighborhood children. She loved children. She loved gardening and growing the most beautiful roses and other flowers. She also loved to travel – Hawaii was her favorite place to visit, having been there several times. She was the Editor of the Jenks Journal Newspaper from 1967-1972.

Marguerite loved her children and was a very caring mother. She learned in 1968 her son, Larry, was going to go out for the school football team. So, she went to the library and checked out as many books as she could find about football so she could learn the game he was going to be playing. She was an accomplished seamstress – always making clothes for her children and grandchildren as well as Barbie clothes for all their dolls.

Marguerite resided at The Gardens Long Term Care Facility from January 2012 – April 28, 2020 and made so many wonderful friends while living there. We would like to thank the entire staff and administration for their loving care of our beloved mother while in their care.

John 3:16 was her favorite Bible verse.
