

Marisa East

February 14, 1964 - January 10, 2025

Marisa Sue (Hays) East was born on February 14, 1964 in El Dorado, Arkansas the daughter to Maurice Hays and Suzanna Graves Hays. She passed from this life on January 10, 2025 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma at the age of 60.

Marisa started working in childcare in 29 Palms, then worked in her children's school in Barstow California. She also worked as a nanny in San Clemente. She then became a Certified Nurses Assistant and worked in assisted living facilities, using her talents to help those in need of specialized care. When she wasn't working, she loved spending time with her grandkids and family. She was a great story teller and loved passing down stories to her family about life and growing up. She always enjoyed her time with her brother David, in Joplin. She will be missed by many who called her mom, grandma and sister. She will also be missed by her special dog "Boo". Marisa had many shows she liked to watch, The Client, Urban Cowboy, Andre, Beaches and Fried Green Tomatoes were a few.

Marisa is survived by:
