“ *I first met Marvin when I was 16. He sold me my first car. It was a Mercury Monterey; which sat about 15!
I met him with my Mother and she could spot great character a mile away. He even said that if I didn't like the car after a few days, I could bring it back for a refund. Who does that anymore?*

As minuscule as this moment in time was, it left an indelible memory in me. What an amazing man.

His legacy of great character truly lives in those that have met him; even if for a brief moment in time.

“ Marvin was my "pew buddy." For several years while attending Florence Street Marvin would sit by me and my husband on Sunday mornings. Marvin enjoyed singing along with the offertory song that was played. During prayer time you always knew Marvin was praying for specific people mentioned for prayers and praying for me and Sam. We had something in common in that we both worked in the Warren Petroleum building. Yes, I will miss him greatly but I know he is with "his honey" and the Lord Jesus Christ.

“ I met Marvin while I was serving as associate pastor at Calvary Baptist in Harrison. I will always remember his warmth, his quick smile and his godly wisdom. He was a good man indeed, whose memory I will carry with me always. God's blessings and peace to all his family.

“ Marvin drove me to work during the summer months between my junior and senior year back in 1968. I didn't have a car and he lived close. Such sweet memories of a precious, God loving man. He sure wanted me to buy a Mercedes. :-)
