“ Mary used to be my neighbor in Tulsa. She had two dogs that were absolutely dedicated and loved her so much. Biscuit was a golden cocker spaniel. Someone had shot an arrow through his head. Mary took him to the vet and told him she’s a registered nurse and between the two of them they can save him. That they did. He lived a long and happy life. Then there was Charlie. He passed a couple months shy of his 21st birthday. I would take him to visit Mary until he passed away. She was without a doubt an Angel on earth to many. If you knew Mary, then you were blessed with an amazing friend.
