“ My entire life I have always had Aunt Mary. After my mother (her sister) passed away I always knew she was right around the corner in case I needed her. She would stay with me when I was sick and let me make a bed on the coffee table so I could watch tv. She traveled with me to California when I was 9 years old and held hot water "meant for hot tea" in front of the car air-conditioning vent so I would have something cold to drink. (We were traveling with another aunt that didn't like stopping for cold drinks.) She talked me into going to ballroom dance lessons so she could get dance lessons for free and she could float on her back in the lake while wearing her sneakers better than anyone I ever knew. She simply loved me and I loved her back. I will miss her being on this earth and pray that she is now united with her family and loved ones in Heaven...
