“ Raye was such a special person, warm, caring and thoughtful. I enjoyed the times we spent together, both in Tulsa and in the UK. I shall miss her cheerfulness each time we chatted on the phone.

“ I have know Aunt Raye since she married my Uncle and became my favorite family member quickly! She had such wonderful humor, top notch wit and talent. Always in my corner and someone I could chat with for hours. She had such positive outlook and so sorry and sad that she loss this battle. But she is at peace, no pain and having a joyful reunion with her beloved parents and other family and friends so we can rejoice in that. Love to Uncle Richard, Scott, James and the grands.. xoxo

“ Auntie Raye was a bundle of fun, with a great sense of humour and a beautiful smile. That's how I will remember her. Being in the UK, we didn't see her often, but each time we did catch up, it was always a pleasure, with lots of laughter! I will also remember her kind heart, and her love for her family.
