“ Sue is rejoicing in Heaven now. Condolences to Tom, Shirley, Art and extended family. I would enjoy trading memorized scripture with her almost as a duel. She would call me on my birthday and we would have a good talk. She's probably making the rounds and meeting all the apostles and other people in scripture after having met the Lord first. Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers. David Haugen

“ At Marybeths wedding reception, I sat and talked with Sue. She told me stories of Jennifers birth, and about her and Tom. She was so animated; we had the best time. She made me laugh a few times were tears ran down my face. I loved visiting with Sue. She was always so interested in my children and me. She really made a person feel special. She will be greatly missed, but I am a better person for knowing her.

My prayers for strength and peace for Tom and all the family.

“ Sue was a very special lady and you are right (never met a stranger), my husband worked for Auto Convoy and this is how I met this wonderful beautiful lady. I loved talking to her as you felt like from the first conversation you had known her all your life. She has now gained her well deserved wings and will be missed so much. RIP precious lady.
