“ Aunt Jo will be truly missed. As a little girl, I remember my Parents taking what seemed to be a super long drive from Tulsa to Owasso to see my cousins and Aunt Jo and Uncle Jay. I was on pins and needles hoping they would be home. When they were, she always greeted us with open arms. Aunt Jo was the sweetest, kindest lady around and She was an awesome cook! I wish I didn't live so far away and could have visited her often. Love her much, but I know she is celebrating with our Heavenly Father!

“ Aunt Jo was a wonderful lady who always had an encouraging word for me. She referred to me as the "little preacher" many times. She was a wonderful sister to my Grandpa JD Friend and Uncle Donald.

I so appreciated that she would never miss an opportunity to share about Jesus. She was certainly not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus.

Revelation 14:13 (NKJV)

13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' "

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them."

She has left behind a great legacy here on earth and she has experience a great reunion as she walked through gates of pearl on streets of gold and walls of ruby and jasper! But most importantly she was welcomed into the loving arms of her precious Savior JESUS!!!

“ Dear Family, We are deeply sorry to hear about the loss of Jo. She was a beautiful person and always so kind. She was such a good friend to our Grandmother, Ruby McDonald. May memories of her love and laughter bring comfort during this time. With loving memories of Jo, Kay, Connie, and Dale Coble

“ What can be said about My Mother. . .

There's not enough space here to even begin. She was my ANGEL sent down from HEAVEN. She was a Mother to everyone . . at times it was very hard to share her.

She had so much LOVE for everyone.

I have seen her stop & console people that she didn't even know that looked hurt and were down. The Lord Jesus was Always brought up when talking to her. . she was such a Witness in Christ !! She would always say "Love Conquers All" and that is how she lived!!

I know that she is having a Great Reunion with My Sweet Daddy & Brother and her Mother and Daddy and also her Brothers.

Bye Mother . . I will see you Someday Soon ! Love You So Much ! !
