Lana and I met the Brissey family shortly after moving to Broken Arrow in 1975. It didn't take long to realize this was a special family. In a short time we found the best baby sitter with Peggy. We grew closer over the years and found out how much fun we could have with them as well as growing in the church with them. All of the Brissey's were special and we had the privilege of seeing both of our families growing up. Max and Vera (and you can't say one without the other) were the center of the family hub and only time would tell just how special this family was. I had the honor of serving on the church board with Max. Only then did I find out how much Max loved his God, family, church and community. He served on the church board as well as the BA school board at the same time while running the dairy farm. There were times the school board would meet until early in the morning breaking just in time from for him to go home to milk the cows. His work ethic was passed to his family as can be seen today. I learned so much from him from our years together on the church board and my love for him and his family continued to grow. Max, I will miss our conversations but I know you and Vera are busy catching up. You have established such a legacy and your family is carrying that legacy on.
