“ I had the pleasure of working with & becoming close friends with Maxine at the VA. I always got a daily hug from her that I already miss so much. She made one of her beautiful quilts for my son that we will always treasure. She was a beautiful, loving person. One of a kind. She will never be forgotten & always in my heart.

Maxine wasn't about antics, or crossing the line very often. But she made me laugh so hard this one day. She asked me if the neighbors had moved yet, & I said yes, why? She said, "Do you like Cannases?" I said absolutely but never had any. She said, follow me. We went in the garage, she got a short shovel & 2 buckets & said come on. Next thing I know she's digging up as many Cannases as we could fit in the 2 buckets, which was quite a few. She told me, now just act normal 😊 We got back to the house, went to the backyard, & said, start splitting them up & we'll get them planted, know one will even notice there gone. By that evening we had them planted where we wanted them to grow & boy did they grow & thrive year after year until they had finally reached the guttering of my house. They had gorgeous red flowers & we loved them, & looked forward to seeing them thrive year after year until we were all told that someone had bought the duplex we lived in & had to move soon. 😞 I wasn't able to take any with us to our new place, but I think she did. Thanks Maxine for showing me your wild side that I never knew you really had. 🤪 Are friendship was forever changed & we would have a good laugh over that day almost every year that they bloomed. Will always love & miss you, & your forever in my heart ❤️❤️❤️

“ I have very fond memories growing up across the street from Maxine. Girl Scouts. Our 8th street gang garage parties. Learning to dance with 45's & a record player. Hanging out in the street until the street lights came on or her dad stepping out on the porch yelling "time to get home". We didn't see each other often over the years. But when we did it was like no time had passed. She was very smart, sweet & had the kindest soul. My sincerest sympathy to Amanda & her family.

“ Maxine was a co-worker of mine at the Tulsa VA. Maxine was always willing to go extra for her patients and Veterans. We shared some lunch breaks and conversations through our working together. Always very kind and sweet to me. Gone way to soon. I offer my prayers to her family.,

“ Maxine was a neighbor of mine for several years. After she retired we started walking around the neighborhood to get some exercise. After I had hip replacement surgery she brought over food for us. I always enjoyed our visits.

Maxine always asked how my Dad was doing, even after he wasn't her patient. What a special lady.
