

Melinda "Mindy" Miller

September 4, 1972 - January 12, 2024

Melinda Dawn Miller was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Monday, September 4, 1972 to Daniel Clark and Peggy Sue (Schwing) Miller. She left Tulsa, Oklahoma on Friday, January 12, 2024 at the age of 51.

Mindy grew up in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, graduating from Broken Arrow High School and eventually earning her Bachelor's Degree from Southern Nazarene University. At the time of her passing, she was employed as a Quality Control Administrator at Aberdeen Dynamics.

Mindy was a member of First Baptist Church of Broken Arrow. She trusted Jesus Christ to be her Savior at a young age and we are certain she is in heaven with Him now.

Mindy loved traveling, cooking, and singing. But nothing was more important to her than friends and family. Oftentimes, the lines would be blurred because to be Mindy's friend was to have her love you like you were part of her family. But perhaps the biggest impact she made was on children. She served as Children's Director, directed Children's Choirs, babysat multitudes, and served as Foster Mom to nine precious souls. Only when we join Mindy in heaven will we truly know the full number of lives who were touched by her faithful care and love.

She is survived by,

Parents, Dan and Peggy Miller of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Sister, Cindy Kimbrough and husband Aaron of Cave Springs, Arkansas

Nephews, Alex Kimbrough and Jon Kimbrough of Johnson, Arkansas
Numerous Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins

“ Danny & Peggy, my heart has broke for you! Mindy was such a fun bundle of JOY! She has made me laugh countless times. What an encourager she was! My mom loved Mindy! I know she has tracked her down in heaven and they are laughing at all the ornery thing they did her on earth. Please know, that I will continue to pray for you all as well as weep for your loss. Love you and your family!
