I just came across this. I don't know if you'll ever see it but I can top your story. He got my mother pregnant in 1970 and refused to admit it so he never had anything to do with me. I never met him but he was my biological father, but that's it. I was raised by a wonderful father and a real man very sad. It was his loss but in the 70s, I'm sure that hurt my mother very much. We never talked about it and she's gone now also Necessary? Jolie... oh I don't know.... lets see, skipping 20 some odd years of his life... probably not. Then again Jolie, really, you really wouldn't know - because you really weren't around.

So sorry to hear of Mike's passing. It was a sad day for many of us who knew Mike. He loved and was gracious to everyone he met. I was not privileged to know his first wife, but he spoke very highly of her as did other people who knew her. They will reunite again. Susan, my heart goes out to you, who I know Mike also loved and your family that cared very much for. 🙏❤️
