

Michael Boyce

November 15, 1947 - July 22, 2020

Michael DeWitt Boyce was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on November 15, 1947. He was the son of DeWitt and Bonnie (White) Boyce. He passed from this life on Wednesday, July 22, 2020 at the age of 72. A private Graveside service will be held Tuesday, July 28, 2020 at Park Grove Cemetery under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home.

Michael went to Nathan Hale High school, served in the US Army Honor Guard in Fort Myers Virginia. Michael had 2 daughters and Teena had a son and a daughter when they met and then later married on January 5, 1994. They started their family with four children, and it grew to include 10 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Michael was a hardworking businessman. He had several successful ventures throughout his career. The latest being the founder and co-owner of Broken Arrow Powder Coating, still in business today. Racing was his passion. He was fascinated with tuning high-performance engines whether it be boats, sprint cars, or drag cars. He won several championships and set multiple records though out the years.

He is survived by:

His wife, Teena Boyce of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and their beloved dogs Waylon and Reba.

Children, grandchildren and a great grandson,

Monica Nilsson of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and husband Tom and three children Tanner Sturm, Blake Nilsson and Drew Nilsson.

Shane Vaughn of Owasso, Oklahoma and wife Terri Jo and two children Austin Wing and Reagan Vaughn.

Melissa Kessler of Jenks, Oklahoma and her two sons Josh Boyce and Justin Kessler and grandson Aaden Martin.

Renae Hurd and husband Mike and three children Ryan Hurd, Allison Hurd and Morgan Hurd.

Niece Max Boyer and her two daughters, and multiple cousins and their families.

He is preceded in death by his parents and Sister, Carolyn Boyer and brother in law, Don Boyer
