“ Less than two weeks ago, Michael and I spent over 30-minutes on phone, wonderful conversation. We talked and laughed and made plans about my visiting this coming fall.

Mike was four years old when I moved to Kentucky. I never had much chance to know him until he and his mother stayed with and took care of my mother in her last months of her life. I just then started to really know Michael. Michael was his own man with a wonderful, caring personality.

Michael, I'll never forget you! You are one special person.
