

Millie Ann Logsdon

July 1, 1930 - October 4, 2023

Millie Ann (Phillips) Logsdon was born on July 1, 1930 in Verdigris, Oklahoma. She was the daughter of Archie and Ora (Ellis) Phillips. She passed away on October 4, 2023 in Catoosa, Oklahoma. She was 93 years old.

Millie was a 1948 graduate of Catoosa High School. She married her husband, Olen, on June 17, 1955 in Sapulpa, Oklahoma. They made their home in Broken Arrow.

She worked for Sears as a clerk until she retired. She then worked for Otasco with her sister until Otasco closed their office. She was a high school star basketball player. She continued her love for the game and eventually became an Oklahoma Thunder basketball fan. Besides her love for basketball, she enjoyed being outside and working in her yard. She would spend hours decorating her yard and landscape.

She has lived her entire lifetime in the Catoosa/Broken Arrow area and will be dearly missed by those that were fortunate enough to have known her.

She is survived by:

Royce York and husband, Paul, Linda Adams and husband, Rick, Lisa Hancock and husband, Joel.

Many Great and Great-great nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by:

Parents: Archie and Ora Phillips

Brother: Norman Phillips

Sister: Connie Craig
