“ Myrna was a very sweet and caring lady. I knew her from Indian Springs and Kay's gift shop. My late husband and I enjoyed a Christmas dinner with Myrna and her husband just before his passing. My prayers for her family. Susie Sparks

“ Myrna would always go to Sonic at 2:30 every afternoon to get a cherry lime aid. She made a friend with the young girl who was the carhop. She would carry on a conversation with her and listen to all the drama of the teenager's life. She cared deeply for all the people in her life. She was a great friend who made me feel so cared and loved. I will miss her greatly.
