“ Pam was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. I will forever be grateful to her and Steve for sharing their sweet Sarah with me all those many years ago. You will all always have a special place in my heart and life. Praying for all of you! Well, done, Pam, you finished your race and have received the prize!

“ Pam was one of my first friends on the host team at South BA Life Church. Her smile was contagious and she always seemed happy and made me feel special to be her friend. She would buy lipstick from me and then wear it to church and would always holler at me when I got there and say " Look at my pretty LIPS!" I will miss her! I want to be a better person because I got to know her and she made an impact on me.
