“ There are just no words to describe....we have been through a lot together. I know you are playing the piano and praising God for your healing. I enjoyed are little impromptu singing sessions. You are so loved and will be greatly missed. Actually I am a little jealous. You are in the presence of our Lord and with the loved ones that have gone before. I am so thankful that you are healed. Thanks for being my friend. Love you Pami

“ Pami was such a dear friend to us and our family for 30+plus years. We laughed, cried and got into mischief together; memories that we are so blessed to have and reflect on. She will be so greatly missed, but we have peace in knowing that she is healed and in the presence of her savior and heavenly family. Love you Pami so much  . Until we meet again

“ We worshipped at Greater Heights with Pam. Her sweet smile and talent at the piano brought joy to many. Despite her health challenges, she enjoyed life, doing crafts, going to the theater and especially being with her family. We are saddened to learn of her passing, yet rejoicing she is reunited with Tommy and her parents.
