

Pat Henry

June 16, 1951 - November 29, 2022

Patrick Brent Henry, 71, a father, grandfather, brother, and avid outdoorsman passed away on November 29th in Tulsa, OK.

Pat was born in Altadena, California on June 16, 1951 to Melvin Leroy Henry and Norma Jean “Pinkie”

(Edwards) Henry. He was a 1969 graduate of Thomas Edison High School in Tulsa, OK and receive a Bachelor of Arts degree from Northeastern State University in 1973. After graduation, Pat would go on to be a computer programmer working in the banking and airline industries.

Pat loved the outdoors. He could always be found outside hunting, fishing, or shooting targets at the local gun club. Pat was an accomplished outdoorsman winning many fishing and trapshooting tournaments, as well as the “World Championship” Strap match. He enjoyed playing golf with his father and his brother, Mike. He was a lifelong music enthusiast who enjoyed listening to rock ‘n’ roll at high volumes. Later in life his favorite activities included taking his grandchildren fishing and watching St.

Louis Cardinals baseball.

Pat was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Cynthia Snyder.

Survivors include brother Mike Henry of Broken Arrow; his daughter Ann Dee Callison (Husband Jacob) of Broken Arrow; son Bo Henry (Wife Rachel) of Cleveland, OK; mother of his children Kathy Parish of Broken Arrow; and grandchildren Jovi and Loudon Callison of Broken Arrow.
