“ I'm so so sorry Jim. She was too young. Whenever we attended events I always enjoyed Pats tell it like it is, dry sense of humor. She was always so stylish and classy. I was always impressed with her teaching dance, her love of family and horses. I hurt for you my friend and wish there was something I could do for you. Go to the classes at Hayhurst, they will help you. Your wonderful family I know is there for you. Ray sends his love as well. Please call me whenever you need a friend and I know you have many. Love Ray and Becki Jennings

“ This gentle soul was like a sister to me in many ways, we shared a lot of things in life the past 30 years; the love of her children and grandkids, we spent time together at many sporting events softball, baseball, soccer, basketball and football games, cheering on the grandkids, and celebrating a lot of special events in the kid's lives, even Holidays.

Pat will be missed and remembered by those that were in her life, it is comforting to know she had the love of God in her heart and that there were loved ones waiting for in heaven, what a glorious reunion. Bless her heart, no more pain.

Loving is knowing when to let go, peace for her at last.

With love and prayers,

Joann

“ Pat was my beloved wife for almost 30 years. She was fun, loved life, and adventure. She was always ready to take a chance on many things. She was a person that would take the risk and lose it all. When she had an idea she had a vision to see it was accomplished. She would put in many tireless hours and achieve the goal. She loved . her family more than life and was so proud of their accomplishments whether it was sports, business, or any goal they had. She was a first class lady and knew how to decorate and put on a fabulous dinner or party. Always on the high road and never on the low road. Very private and never wanted to be in the limelight. Very smart and wonderful artistic ability. Could create exquisite designs and painted beautifully. Loved perfection but excepted people as they were. Not judgmental but definately had her own opinion. I will definately miss her by my side. Love you baby and hope to see you again some day. You were always a class act such a classy , classy lady. Thank you GOD for allowing me to have her. She always told me proud she was of me and stood behind me at all times. Love and miss you baby. Your loving husband Jim.
