My grand Uncle. A man of great zest for life and a deep spiritual anchor. And his perpetual smile. I wish I could be half the man he was.

When I saw Paul's name I immediately felt sadness. It's hard to see our old friends leave us, but he has lived a good long life. I too worked at MetLife and met Paul when I transferred from a local sales office to the Head Office. It didn't take long to learn who the "original crew from our NY Home Office" were. He was what we would think of as "one of the good guys."

It's interesting and fitting that most comments above mention his smile. I've tried to imagine what Paul looked like without that smile.....and it's impossible, he always had a sweet smile on his face.

My thoughts and prayers to his family.
