“ I was her next door neighbor up until I was 5 or 6 yo I believe. Her and her husband doted on me like I was their own. I faintly remember baking cookies with Miss Penny. On Easter's, their niece I believe she was... she used to dress up as the Easter bunny and come knock on our door to pay me a visit. When my mother was in a car accident when I was in Kindergarten I remember telling the officer my home address. Well there was no one home. I asked the police officer if I could stay with, “Penny and Burns.” Lol Y'all know kids know how to mess up a name. Well the officer knocking on their door, and Penny and Mister “Burns” welcomed their home to me until my mother came home. I'm now 26yo and I still think about them from time to time. I truly miss them and will always Cherish the kindness they showed me. May you both rest in eternal peace. Love Amaris Adkins
