“ These words from the song “Friends” by Michael W. Smith sums up our feelings towards Philip and Vicki’s friendship:

*And friends are friends forever
If the Lord's the Lord of them
And a friend will not say never
'Cause the welcome will not end
Though it's hard to let you go
In the Father's hands we know
That a lifetime's not too long
To live as friends*

*Rest In Peace, Philip in the Lord’s arms!

“ Oh...to see Jesus and to hear Him say, “Well done thou good and faithful servant...enter into the joy of the Lord.” (Matthew 25:23)
To be God’s faithful servant means letting Him transform our hearts and minds, so it is no longer about “me” but about Jesus and others.

I saw Philip being a servant, especially with our mother. He bought her gifts and did things that made her life easier, safer, and more enjoyable. He used his vacation time to care for her, and he always would pray with her after she was “tucked in” for the night. And when the phone rang on Wednesday nights, Momma knew it would be her Philip calling.

This life is short, eternity is forever. Live your life for Jesus...following after Him and not the world. Then we, too, can hear those words from Jesus: “Well done thou good and faithful servant.”

“ Our hearts break with you. It was a pleasure to know Phillip. I remember visiting once and Philip was washing Vicki’s car and when I left I discovered he had washed my car also. We appreciated his love for God and his family. His legacy will forever live on in his family. Love and prayers for Vicki and the family. Jeff and Cindy Ocker

“ My condolences go out to your family, As a previous employee of State Farm I had the privilege to work with Philip on several occasions. He was very nice and more than willing to help his fellow employees. That trait continued on as an an employee with CBRE, where I again had the opportunity to work with him. It is very sad to hear of his passing.
