

Phyllis Ann Highfill

June 28, 1935 - October 21, 2024

Phyllis Ann Trammell Highfill, beloved mother, grandmother, sister and friend, passed away on October 21, 2024. She was born on June 28, 1935, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Phyllis graduated from Daniel Webster High School in 1953, where she was actively involved in the Student Council and participated in various school activities, earning the honor of Football Queen Attendant in both her junior and senior years.

Phyllis had a fulfilling career, working at Sinclair Oil in Tulsa, Strasburger & Price Law Firm and Kizzia Johnson Law Firm, both in Dallas, Texas.

At the age of 12, she accepted Jesus as her personal Savior at Red Fork Baptist Church. Her faith was her guiding light, and she cherished her family deeply. Phyllis had a profound love for Israel and the Jewish people, which shaped her life and travels.

In 2010, she published a book titled Blessings, in which she wrote, "At the root of God's love is His ultimate sacrifice when He gave His only begotten son, Jesus, to die on the cross for our salvation." Phyllis shared this powerful message during her travels to Israel, India, Alaska, and various European countries.

She is survived by her three children, six grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, one sister, and one nephew. Phyllis leaves behind a legacy of love and faith. In her own words to her family, "I CARRY YOU IN MY HEART OF LOVE – FOREVER WILL I LOVE YOU."

Phyllis will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
