“ I've only known Nubbs for a short amount of time, & he was the most generous man I've met. These pictures were taking the day of my wedding! June 18th, 2016! I'm married to what he called his God Son!

I'm going to miss you so much 😭 All the memories we have shared over the past year & a half will be kept in my heart forever!

Rest Easy Prince! ❤️

Hi, is there any information on what happened or what was the cause of his death? I just found out he passed away. I was a friend many years ago.
