

Ralph Elliott

May 31, 1925 - January 19, 2021

Private family services will be held.

Ralph Jordan Elliott, son of Elmer and Edna Elliott, was born Sunday, May 31, 1925 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and left our world on Tuesday, January 19, 2021 in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the age of 95. Services for Ralph are under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home.

Ralph met “the love of his life,” Lenora Geasland, whom he married on March 19, 1944 in Okmulgee, Oklahoma just prior to shipping out with the Army during World War II. Ralph served in France, Belgium, and Germany, and survived the Battle of the Bulge before returning home in 1946.

Joining the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW), Ralph became an electrician and taught electrical code for many years. After his children were grown, Ralph started his own company, Elliott Precision Products, a manufacturer of precision machined metal and a metal fabrication business. His formal education had stopped prior to high school, but he became a self-taught man, studying many topics such as trigonometry so he could figure out the properties of metal. He loved to read and learn, becoming adept at computer coding for his business.

He and Lenora raised their family of three children, and eventually had seven grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren. After he retired, Ralph enjoyed watching sports on television, and kept his mind working by writing code for his computers. Ralph and Lenora were married for 77 years. He will be missed.

“ *Dear Aunt Lenora, Marilyn, Tricia and Steve and families,
We were saddened to hear about Uncle Ralph's passing. Our memories of Ralph and Lenora's visit to California are happy ones, filled with laughter. Uncle Ralph was so patient, and he and Lenora wallpapered our dining room during their visit. Our house was in a shambles, as we were renovating, but the dining room looked great thanks to them! I have memories as a child of trips to Oklahoma, visiting family and to reunions.
Uncle Ralph will always hold a special place in my heart. May you find comfort in the days ahead. Love, Robert & Pauline* “ *May God's comfort shower over your hearts today as you honor this remarkable man, a loving and devoted husband and father. Ralph was always so proud of his family and so committed to their welfare. The twinkle in his eye as he spoke of family will always warm our hearts.

We will always treasure Uncle Ralph's smile, his humor, his intellect and his loving protection. He tenderly cared for others and opened their home as a safe haven for so many.
May joyous memories live on bringing comfort to all.
With deep love, appreciation and prayers,
Gregg & LaDonna*

“ *Steve,
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at the loss of your Dad. I was glad I got to meet your Dad and Mom through our business relationship while I was at Braden Steel. I always enjoyed visiting with them on the phone and at their shop in Inola. They were good folks.
Sincerely,
Paul Graves*
