

Ray Jumper

August 4, 1934 - February 26, 2026

Milton Ray Jumper was born in Quinlan, Texas on Saturday, August 4, 1934, to parents Milster and Doshie (Rohus) Jumper. He left this old world behind surrounded by loving care in his own home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Thursday, February 26, 2026 at 91 years of age.

One of three boys growing up in the South, Milton graduated high school from Quinlan, Texas in 1952. He continued his education obtaining an associate's degree from El Paso Community College. Milton joined the United States Army and proudly served his country during the Vietnam era. Being in the military brought him face to face with grief. He became quite involved in Grief Recovery in Broken Arrow.

Along came the former Barbara Jean VandenBosch who caught the eye of Milton and stole his heart. Milton and Barbara were married on Monday, May 20, 1957, in Rockwall, Texas. They formed a loving and lasting relationship raising five children. They were married until her passing in 2009. Milton was fortunate to have loved and married twice. Miss Nancy King became acquainted with Milton and after some time, they married in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Saturday, August 6, 2011. Unfortunately, he became a widower once again.

Milton was a Police Officer as a career for the Broken Arrow Police Department. His military background prepared him for this line of work. He was a protector by nature. He loved his family and getting together with them on any occasion. He didn't like to sit idle; Milton was always busy doing something. He enjoyed being outside, either playing golf or going fishing.
