

Rhea Owens

February 23, 1952 - January 27, 2026

Rhea Kathleen Owens was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Saturday, February 23, 1952, to parents, Benjamin Leonard and Aris Junelle (Knight) Parker. She left this world behind from Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Tuesday, January 27, 2026, at the age of 73.

Rhea was the only girl of five children raised in Tulsa. She graduated from Broken Arrow High School in 1970. She was highly intelligent and built a career as a paralegal. In her early years, Richard Owens noticed the former Rhea Parker and a bond formed between them. They were married in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Thursday, June 5, 1969. Rhea and Rick had two children. She was a devoted and loving wife and mother.

Being musically talented, she played flute for the Pride of Broken Arrow and also played the piano. Later, Rhea played keyboards in different bands all around this area. She was also quite the pianist and enjoyed playing. She was fond of listening to various styles of music. It brought such joy to her soul.

Rhea was keen on travelling whenever and as often as she could. Her favorite vacation memories were from taking cruises. She and Rick were able to travel the Caribbean and the Mexican Riviera and various other places.

Her family to remember the good times,

Husband: Rick Owens of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Children: Brandy and Tim Kopichanski of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Adam Owens of Los Angeles, California

Grandchildren: Daphne Henry, Cayden Owens

Siblings: Jack Parker, Jim Parker, Joel Parker, Jeff Parker

Rhea was preceded in death by her parents, Benjamin and Aris Parker.
