It was my great pleasure to serve as an Elder to Dick and Margie at Lake Oconee Lutheran Church. I got to know them well and was able to visit with them often and, hopefully, help them both physically and spiritually. I miss them both and hope that I can maintain contact and communication with Ms. Margie for years to come. My prayers continue to be with her.

I'm grateful to have been able to "participate" in Dick's memorial service in this way. May God continue to comfort you as you mourn Dick's passing. You'll be in my prayers as well.
