

Richard Howard Holleyman

March 3, 1932 - April 26, 2024

Richard Howard Holleyman was born on March 3, 1932, on the farm south of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, the son of Homer Albert Holleyman and Annie Bell (Madewell) Holleyman. He passed away peacefully on Friday, April 26, 2024, at the age of 92, at his home with his wife.

Richard enjoyed growing up on the farm with his brother and two sisters, where he learned many of his talents that benefit him for the rest of his life. He graduated from Schulter High School and then worked for Drake Candy Company until he enlisted in the United States Navy and served our country during the Korean War. Following his time after active service in the Navy, he attended Okmulgee Tech for technology training for air conditioning and refrigeration. He trained himself on how to fix appliances to further his career. He met the love of his life, Helen Marie Shelton and they married on June 21, 1958, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. He was hired by Sears Roebuck and Co., and they moved to Galveston, Texas, and had five children. He later transferred to the Tulsa area to be closer to their families, where he retired after 35 years. They made their home in Broken Arrow and are members of the Church of Christ. He was also a proud citizen of the Muscogee Creek Nation.

Richard was known to his family and friends as the repair tech because he could fix anything that was given to him. He loved to bake, work in his garden and yard, plus volunteer at the church. Richard's impact on those around him was profound. His kind heart and generous spirit touched the lives of many, and his willingness to help others was a constant source of inspiration. His passing leaves a void that will be deeply felt by all who were fortunate enough to know and love him.

Richard is preceded by his parents, son Terry Lynn Holleyman, brother and sister-in-law Dexter and Virginia Holleyman, and sisters Lucille Parker and Nora Duckworth.

He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Helen Holleyman; his daughter, Sherry Holleyman; son, Larry Holleyman, and wife Connie; daughter, Cheryl Stewart, and husband Edward Sr.; and daughter, Ruth Biggs, and husband Jason. Grandchildren Joshua Holleyman and wife Krista, Edward Stewart, Talisa Biggs, and Denton Biggs. Great-granddaughter Jupiter Holleyman.
