“ *I have been looking for Dickie for a long time and have not been successful until today.
I am so sorry for the families loss he was a wonderful person.
Richard and I were childhood friends and after he moved away we lost touch. We were inseparable for our grammar school years. I will always carry the fondest memories of a beautiful young boy who was a bright spot in my life. God Bless you all.*

“ Whenever I needed a project done by a certain deadline, I could always count on Richard to make it happen (even though he might tell me up front it could never happen). He always went above and beyond. He was appreciated and respected by those who worked with him (a humble man who didn't want attention drawn to himself).
