“ Wow!!! When they say a picture is worth a thousand words they must have been talking about the picture you chose for Bob. I will always remember Bob as having something funny to say and his laugh when he finished. He would like to prank and laugh about it from now on. His was the most amazing musician. I will never forget the first time I walked in the house and heard him playing. It was a concert hall full of music coming from one little piano in a tiny little house! When Bob played everyone stopped to listen. May you Play in the Concert Hall of our Lord Eternally!

“ Beck Sons and families,

What a jolt you must be feeling, in losing both parents at once. We were not surprised that Bob left this earthly world right after Judy. It was easy to see that their love continued over the years.

We love this photo of your Dad. We enjoyed his warm smile and chuckles. We have you in our thoughts and prayers as you go forward.
