“ Bob was a wonderful friend to my family during a difficult time in our lives. He and Jean adopted all three of us, and we spent many weekends swimming, and eating his amazing hamburgers which he delighted in making for us all. Bob was always playing pranks on us, and wherever he was, there was always the sound of his happy laughter.

He was a truly kind person, and always very fair. I will always remember him as someone with honest compassion, a joy for life and a very special love for his fellow man.

Another star will be twinkling in the night sky.
