

Robert Lindhorst

November 17, 2022

Bob Lindhorst (81), passed away peacefully Thursday evening after a long and torturous battle with dementia.

Family and friends will remember him most from before that time when he was smiling and happy, generous with his time and skills to help out a loved one or a stranger, always building or repairing something.

We will all remember how he loved to tell colorful tales of his many life experiences. And how he had the capacity to love unconditionally and with his whole heart.

His children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren will surely hold fond memories of the time they had with him.

My dearest Bob – You. Were. Loved.

No services are planned at this time. Please feel free to leave your condolences in our online tributes.
