“ Roger is, and will always be, a true and loyal friend. I will never forget him! Our Wednesday morning breakfasts! We never wasted any time complaining about the weather, politics, or even our own aches and pains.

We talked about the important things; raising the perfect tomato, family, football, baseball, movies to see, books to read! And yes our prayer time, praying with and for each other! As the Bible says "when two or more agree as in touching.." (Matt 18:19)

May God in His Mercy and Love, comfort Margie and the family during this difficult time.
