

Ronald J. Guydan

January 11, 1941 - May 30, 2025

Ronald Joseph Guydan was born on January 11, 1941 in Monongahela, Pennsylvania, the son of John Guydan and Helena Armenini Guydan. He passed from this life at home on May 30, 2025 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma at the age of 84.

Ronald served his country by joining the United States Air Force after graduating high school, specializing in microwave and electronics. After moving to New Orleans, he became Sales/Service Manager at TANO. He married his life-long friend, Marie Louise Duhe, of Laplace, Louisiana on September 6, 1996. He retired in 2011 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Ronald loved his work, he put his heart into everything he did. He was passionate about helping others and was always willing to lend a hand. He volunteered at the New Orleans Zoo when living there. He considered New Orleans his true home. He loved to travel, even with his job, but he especially liked to travel with Marie, taking her for drives to see the country.

Ronald will be greatly missed by those who have known him and were fortunate enough to call him family and friend.

He is survived by:

Wife: Marie Louise Guydan of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Sister: Gloria Guydan Walsh of Monongahela, Pennsylvania

Children: Alain Guydan of Smyrna, Tennessee

Genevieve Guydan Suarez of Slidell, Louisiana

Five Grandchildren

One Great Grandchild

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Helena Guydan and brother John P. Guyden Jr.

“ One year when Uncle Ronnie was home for a visit I was pregnant with my daughter. Uncle Ronnie would come pick me up every evening and ask " Judi-bird what does the baby want tonight?" He would then drive me (and the baby in my belly) miles for gelato or donuts or whatever I said the baby wanted. Such a nice memory I will always remember.
