“ Sorry to hear about the loss of Ron. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Ron and I are cousins. It saddens me that I don't remember him as kids growing up. He is 7 years older than I. Only saw him a couple times in the past few years. Thankful I did get to meet him. May God Bless each one and comforts your hearts. Love you all.

“ RB I miss your teasing and hard knocks. He is the most generous, kindest soul I've ever known. He never judged but you were always challenged to be better, push harder, dig deeper and live all in... I'm better for knowing you... I promise Drita will take care of Terr Bear.

“ Ron was an excellent black jack player. One night in Vegas I set out to teach him craps. As we walked to the table Ron had two handfuls of green $25 chips huddled against his belly, and as he was trying to put them in the tray he spilled them all over the table. He looked at the dealer and announced "Just give me all of 'em down through there". The dealer stacked Rons green chips across the board on every number. The shooter rolled number after number for the next 30 minutes without crapping out, turning all of his stacks of $25 chips into black $100 chips earning him about a $10,000 profit. Then he looks at me with that grin and says "Any questions?"

I love him and I miss him already.

“ *Our brother-Ronnie Lee
It's amazing how brothers and sisters can be so different but still have a special bond that is and always will be there. Ronnie was my older brother, to set the record straight, he always told everyone I was older. I've always said that if he did not tease me or give me a hard time I would know that he was mad at me. The great blessing is, he never stopped teasing me. These past few weeks I realized what great faith he had in God. He loved life. Thank you brother for all the special times! Love always, Glenda*

“ Ron was one of my favorite customers for over 30 years. I remember the good times we visited about everything from politics to Harleys to Corvettes. He was a remarkable person that Kathy and I will deeply miss. I gave him a real hard time for hanging out in Florida just a few days ago. Our prayers are with his children, grandchildren and all his great employees. He will be deeply missed by all that knew him but God has told us that there is a beginning and an end, the Alpha and the Omega. And we must all believe that we will once again be with Ron in a much better place than here where there is no sickness, no surgery and no death. Danny and Kathy Beck Tulsa.

Terri, Gary & I are so very sorry for your loss. You have our deepest sympathy. Ron loved you very much. I remember on your wedding day, sitting at the table, watching Ron just staring at you.
