“ Nothing stood in Ronnie's way - I was 12 when my uncle brought them to Iowa so the boys would see a true white Christmas...yep no snow till Christmas morning. Ronnie popped that wheelchair onto the back tires and four of us climbed aboard to sled down our hill - of course we got in big trouble, but both myself and my brother remember those wonderful first meeting memories with our new cousins.

I remember Ron from our engineering days at John Brown and Aker. Such a pleasant and cheerful soul to be around. Always smiling. My deepest sympathy to his family.
