“Ronnie has been a friend since high school days. He was a year behind me and we palled around after school for a few years. He was always likeable and fun to be with.

He had a really cool chevy , I think a 1960. He would let me drive it and I'm afraid I abused the privilege.

Same goes for Jerry Beck's 1957 convertible.

In later years we would talk guns, I would see him at the gun shows and shared a table on a few occasions.

A great friend.

“Ronnie was a long time friend of the Beck family. He and Jerry were buddies for years. When Jerry joined the National Guard and was really homesick Jerry got permission one Sunday for us to come and visit. Mom and dad's car was old and Ronnie stepped right up and said he would take us. I was about 5 at the time but never forgot his Golden Commando Plymouth Fury, white and gold. I thought it was so cool to ride in. Jerry could not get in car and had to stand and lean on it to talk to us. His commander did come out and invite us to have lunch in the mess hall and we went in and had lunch on the Fort LeonardWood base east of Springfied. Jerry visited with us until 3 p, when he had to go back to barracks. Ronnie brought us home and even helped my dad milk the cows that evening since we got home late. He was a good guy and everyone will miss him greatly.
