“ On one of the home visits for Ministry of Compassion we had to go to Indian Springs Apts. As we're looking for the apartment, Rose said; "Tell me it's not on the 2nd floor" as we look up the many steps we saw a lady waving to us. Rose just look at me and I held my hands up, as if to say "I didn't tell you" She came downstairs to help with the bags. We had many laughs over that. Love you Rose.

Rose and Paul feel like family to me, even though I am just a pharmacy tech. That is the way she was so very kind and loving to the human race! She was always a joy to serve and love. She will be greatly miss by the WM Pharmacy and especially me!💕

“ Sure is a loss for those of us here! Missing her sassy spirit! For those close neighbors we fondly remember her as “Mrs. G”. Such wonderful friends and neighbors for 50+ years! A life well lived.... We should all take a lesson or two from Mrs. G.
